

Obituary

Died: Saturday, September 7, 2019

Mrs. Hannah Lee Daniels was born December 30, 1929, in Portsmouth, Virginia. She was the daughter of Leroy Randolph Bell and Alice Harris Bell.

After completing high school, Hannah Daniels enlisted in the U. S. Army. She completed her service in 1953, and earned an Honorable Discharge as a Sargent. She received the Korean Service Medal, United Nations Medal, National Defense Medal and a Good Conduct Medal.

She soon found her way to Indianapolis, Indiana, where she married Alonzo Lee Daniels. They became members of Witherspoon Presbyterian Church under the pastoral leadership of Reverend Landrum E. Shields. Their union produced two daughters, Kelly M. Daniels and Kim L. Daniels.

Hannah Daniels was loved and respected by all. As a self-proclaimed Domestic Engineer, her primary focus was taking care of her home and family. Her work outside of home consisted of the U. S. Army Finance and Accounting Center at Fort Benjamin Harrison, William T. Ray Realty Company and as a volunteer at Witherspoon Church.

Her hobbies included modeling, where she was among the first African American models for L. S. Ayres & Company in their Tea Room. She also modeled for Elan Furs, the U. S. Army uniform catalog and was an accomplished pianist.

Mrs. Hannah Lee Daniels departed her earthly life at home and surrounded by loved ones, on Saturday, September 7th, 2019, at the age of 89.

She leaves to cherish in her memory her children, Kelly M. (James)Cissel and Kim L. Johnson; grandchildren, Danielle Walker, Kiona L. Williams, Deanna Walker, Mark A. Johnson, DeMarcus Henderson and Skylar Cissel; great grandchildren, Niomi Buroker, Troy Buroker and Story Johnson, a host of nieces and nephews, church family, neighbors and many, many friends.
