

Obituary

Died: Tuesday, January 7, 2020

Mrs. Charlotte Marceline Turner was born on May 8, 1931 to the union of Charles F. Powell Sr. and Helen Powell (Clay) in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Charlotte received her education in the Indianapolis Public Schools graduating from Crispus Attucks High School.

Charlotte accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church and has been a member for over seventy-five years.

Service Summary

---

Interment following funeral service

Fri Jan 17, 2020

---

Visitation

10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, Fri Jan 17, 2020

Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church

3801 Forest Manor
Indianapolis, Indiana 46226

---

Celebration of Life

12:00 PM Fri Jan 17, 2020

Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church

3801 Forest Manor
Indianapolis, Indiana 46226

On November 18, 1950 Charlotte married the love of her life, Charles E. Turner and they were married sixty-nine years.

Charlotte worked for the downtown Indianapolis, L.S. Ayers Department Store retiring in 1975. She had many talents, but she especially loved flowers, gardening, and taking care of her family.

Our beloved Charlotte departed this life on Tuesday, January 7, 2020 at the age of eighty-eight years old. She was preceded in death by her parents; son, Ricky J. Turner; siblings, Delores Powell, Marion Powell, Charles F. Powell Jr., Roger Powell, Richard Powell and Joseph Powell; five grandchildren, Damon Coleman, Michael Coleman, David Kimbrough, Christopher Kimbrough, and LaKeisha Kimbrough.

She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Charles E. Turner; children, Tanya N. Turner (Sean Booker), Carl Turner, Janice Turner (Anthony), Denise Coleman, Patricia Peoples and step-daughter, Loretta Dorsey; sister, Helen Williams; grandchildren, Cecil E. Todd and Tamala Coleman, and a host of relatives and friends.

Humbly Submitted.....The Family

