

Obituary

Died: Friday, February 7, 2020

Mr. Reginald Belcher was born on May 14, 1950, in Indianapolis, Indiana. The son of Chris O. Belcher and Pearl Daniel Belcher, he was the third of three children.

Reggie attended Indianapolis Public School #63. Although Reggie was once employed as a Fork Lift Driver, he pursued various ventures, such as carpentry and home renovations. He was talented in many areas.

Reggie accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior in his later years of life. Through his union with Cynthia Taylor-Belcher, a son was born and named, Reginald S. Belcher.

Reggie was a loving and compassionate father, grandfather, and friend. His pleasant personality will truly be missed by all who loved him.

Mr. Reginald Belcher departed this life February 7, 2020. He was preceded in death by his father, Chris O. Belcher, Sr.; mother, Pearl Daniel-Belcher; sister, Sharon Belcher-Wright, and a niece, Latonya Wright.

He leaves to cherish his memories his son, Reginald Belcher (Katrina); daughter, Tiana Treadwell; brother, Chris O. Belcher, III (Guadalupe); grandchildren, Tiera Belcher, Ryan Belcher, Tiffany Belcher, James Herron, Landon Canady, Karson Smith, Joy Smith, and Lance Smith; twelve great-grandchildren, a host of other relatives, friends, and special friends.
