

Obituary

Died: Friday, February 7, 2020

Shirley Ann Wagner was born September 6, 1942. She was the daughter of Elsie (Jarrett) Greer and Joe Jarrett Sr. Having been raised in a loving Christian family Ann excepted Christ at a very young age.

Ann graduated from Crispus Attucks High School, she worked at Sales and Research as a Data Entry Operator. She was a Housewife and mother to seven children. She also babysat all her nieces and nephews through the years. She love them dearly.

Ann belonged to the Misfits and Daring Lions Social Club in the early years of her adult life.

Ann loved her family and there was nothing more important to her than that. Being together, loving one another. The wonderful memories and good times we all a shared will never be forgotten.

There was no greater friend, sister, auntie, grandmother and above all mother in this whole wide world. She will truly be missed.

Shirley Ann Wagner departed this life on earth on Friday, February 7, 2020, at the age of seventy seven years, five months and one day. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, her sisters Brenda L. Jarrett-Hill, Beverly Riddick And her brothers Joseph Jarrett Jr. and James M. Jarrett.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons, John Augusta Wagner Jr. III, James Edward Wagner and Curtis Lamont Wagner; her daughters, Doris Jean Wagner-Webb, Joyce Ann Harris, Bridgitt Elaine Wagner and Teresa Rochelle Thompson; 16 grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren, 1 great-great grandchild, and a host of nieces and nephews and other family members.

Shirley Ann Wagner the Queen of our hearts

Humbly Submitted.....The Family

Service Summary

Cremation

Visitation

12:00 PM to 1:00 PM, Sat Feb 15, 2020

Stuart Mortuary Chapel

2201 N. ILLINOIS STREET
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA 46208

Celebration of Life

1:00 PM Sat Feb 15, 2020

Stuart Mortuary Chapel

2201 N. ILLINOIS STREET
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA 46208

