A Brief Sketch of Life

Mrs. La'Chelle Hall Wilson was born on February 22, 1979 to the Late John Hall, Jr. and Tawana Thompson. She was known by her father as Sugar-dook.

La'Chelle was baptized in June of 1992 and filled with the Holy Ghost under Apostle Toney. She sat on the Trustee Board, was a teacher in the ministry, and possessed many spiritual gifts. She allowed God to use them all. She was known as a Prophetess.

La'Chelle attended Garden City Elementary School, Ben Davis Jr. High School and graduated from Broad Ripple High School. After high school she continued her education receiving a Paralegal Associate of Arts Degree.

La'Chelle briefly worked at Hardees as an assistant manager and then pursued a career in banking. La'Chelle was employed at Chase Bank and Huntington National Bank. While working at Huntington Bank she climbed the corporate ladder to achieve a position as a Personal Banker. La'Chelle was also active in the community. She worked in the after-school program at Washington High School and helped churches and small businesses with their financial and legal needs.

While working at Chase Bank, La'Chelle met the love of her life, David Wilson. David and La'Chelle were married on August 24, 2004. They loved to travel out of the country together for their anniversaries and birthdays.

La'Chelle leaves to cherish her memory her husband, David Wilson; mother, Tawana Thompson; mother-in-law, Linda Flynn; grandmother, Carolyn Ragland; brothers, Jonathan Young, John Hall, III; Marq Hall; sisters, Amanda Boyd, Tiara, Keesha, Katrina Johnson, Nanticia Martin; aunts, Jean Anthony, Stephanie Coleman; great aunt, Mary Bailey; uncles, John Derek, Marcus, Joel Ragland; great uncle, Ronald Bailey, goddaughter, Shania LaChelle and special cousins, Tamara Merritt and Belinda Bailey.
