Antwon was handsome, young, smart, talented, funny, caring, loving, and an electronic genius. He always had the best advice. There was nothing he couldn't do when he put his mind to it.

Antwon loved to travel. Going down south was always a highlight, guaranteed to be pushing 90 mph was in his best comfort. He also enjoyed spending time at the gun range, he always kept his .45 on his hip amongst many other favorites he had. He enjoyed going down on the hill on family land in Mississippi also to play with his toys. He had an old soul for music more than the average his age. His playlist was always riders music for any occasion.

Antwon's first job was at UPS, where he worked for 5 years. He left UPS to go on to Budweiser, where he was a draft technician. He was everyone's favorite Budweiser man.

Antwon took pride in his hard work with his vehicles. He has owned many vehicles, but his baby was his big boy 2016 Chevy Silverado, Blue Baby. He kept them all clean and ready to hit the road. Many cars experienced speakers, his baby's was his set of 12's in the 97' Yukon which banged the loudest.

Antwon left something special with everyone he came in contact with. He was truly special to everyone. There isn't anything he wouldn't do if it was in his power to help anyone out. He loved his family dearly.
