"Dirty" was many things to friends and family who loved him. His most honorable characteristic by far was his unwavering love and loyalty for his close friends and family. He WAS the "PARTY" and the dance floor was never empty if "Dirty" was around. He knew no strangers ... just friends he hasn't met yet. As we often say, "Dirty" was a "Jack of all Trades and Master of None," but he strived every day to be better than yesterday. So, as we say goodbye, we make commitments of never forgetting. Never forgetting his laugh, never forgetting his love, never forgetting his loyalty, and most importantly never forgetting how much he meant to our lives. Remember his sons, and his son's sons, as they mourn his life. Let's remember to remind them all to celebrate his life.

So, as you leave "Dirty" you will never be forgotten. We will always hold you and your memories near and dear to our hearts. So, fly "Dirty" fly, and know that your family will miss you but will never let you go!

"Dirty" was preceded in death by his father, Willie Gibson; both paternal and maternal grandmothers, Bernice Gibson and Margaret Davis; uncle, Otis Ware; aunts, Joan Lamb, Veronica Gowdy, Caroline Griffin, and Edna Howard; cousins, Derrick Swanigan, Andre Greene, Shanita and Ja'sion Davis, Christopher, Charles, Andre, and Anthony Lamb.

"Dirty" leaves to cherish his memories two wonderful sons, Gregory and Michael Saunders; three adorable grandsons, Gregory, Michael, Jr. and Kanan Saunders; loving mother, Paula "Evette" Lamb; grandfather, Johnny Davis, Sr.; one brother, Johnathan Exum; two sisters, Tomika and Tinika Lamb; seven uncles, Dennis "Charles" Lamb, Johnny Jr. and Ronald Davis, Jermaine Johnson, William and Charles Howard, and Charlie Gibson; four aunts, Darlene Hill and Regyna Yates, Sammy Forster, and Retha Whitehead; three nephews, Derrick and Johnathan Britt, and Daejaun Lamb; four nieces, Donte'sia Harris, Keosha Bates, Deasia Lamb, and Aniya Exum; twenty-six first cousins, Patrick Howard, Alvin Gowdy, Darren Allen, Jeremiah and Jermaine Johnson, Ronald II, Darron, Isreal, Tigran, De' Ayre, Johnny III, Demetruis, Desean, Jonas Davis; as well as Shamika, Terri, Ronnisha, Justus, Johnita Davis, Shalena and Shanice Gowdy, Tommisha, Tommika, Tommonica, and Tommargaret Hill, with special acknowledgement for one of his favorite cousins, Monica "Lee" Lamb, and a very special friend, Markita Banks

We Will Always Love & Cherish Our Time With You &
Send You Home With Love & Well Wishes.

" Peace & Love" Dirty! Peace & Love!
