

Obituary

Died: Friday, October 9, 2020

Lela Mae Livingston-Brandon was born on May 10, 1942 in Sumner, Mississippi to the late George Price Sr. and Elmer (Puddin) Green Price.

Mae attended Elementary School #83 and she graduated from George Washington High School.

Mae was employed over the years at General Hospital, RCA, Central State Hospital, Larue Carter, CICOA and the Marion County Election Board.

In 1964 Mae United in Matrimony to Oscar C. Livingston and from this union 2 children were born, Theresa Livingston and Shelia Livingston. In 2016 she United in Matrimony to William "Harvey" Brandon, Sr. who preceded her in death.

Mae dedicated her life to Christ at an early age. Later she united with Pleasant Union Baptist Church currently under the leadership of Pastor Nello Holman. Mae had a beautiful voice and loved to sing. This was a talent she shared with her parents. She was a member of the Church Choir until her health issues caused her to resign from her office with the choir.

She was a dedicated member of the Women of West Indianapolis, active member and diligent worker of the Seasoned Hearts and the Golden Girls.

After the passing of her mother (Puddin Price), Mae became the family Matriarch. She loved bringing the family together for holiday's, birthdays, cook outs or for no reason at all. She just loved being with her family. She held the knowledge of our family's history and loved pulling out old photos. Our mom wore many hats for us, she was Mom to all of me and my sister's friends. Then she was Granny to ALL of Tanei's friends. Our mom has been referred to as a Sister and Aunt by many of her cousins. Her love for traveling would often cause her to hit the road to Springfield or Memphis to see her sister, nieces and nephews. She enjoyed her visits to California so much that she was considering relocating there during Indiana winter months.

Mae even had a passion for sports, she would watch the Pacer's and Colts play and would yell at the TV as thou they could hear her. Josh can probably relate since she became one of his biggest cheerleaders at his basketball games. But Friday nights was her night with the girls and you know who you are. The game was Bid Whiz.

Lela Mae Livingston-Brandon departed this life on Friday, October 9, 2020 at the age of 78 years young. She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer (Puddin) and George Price, Sr., 2 brothers George Price, Jr and Roy Gaters and her husband William "Harvey" Brandon, Sr.

Mae leaves to cherish her memory her loving children, Theresa Livingston (Gerald), Shelia Livingston, Augusta Batmaz, Maria Hayes (Jeff), William H. Brandon, Jr .; granddaughter, Tanei Livingston; brother, Robert Price (Suzanne); sister, Peggy Rice (Tom) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and her Pleasant Union Baptist Church Family.

Service Summary

Interment following funeral service

Sat Oct 17, 2020

Visitation

10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, Sat Oct 17, 2020

Pleasant Union Missionary Baptist Church

1202 Eugene Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46208

Celebration of Life

12:00 PM Sat Oct 17, 2020

Pleasant Union Missionary Baptist Church

1202 Eugene Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46208

Humbly Submitted.....The Family