Lisa received her primary education in the public school system in Indianapolis, Indiana. She attended School #76, Mapleton Fall Creek Junior High School, and George Washington High School.

Lisa for years, took pride in her occupation as a dispatcher and auditor for Last Chance. Lisa was devastated when she had to leave due to her illness, but the Last Chance family never forgot her; she was family for life. They exhibited such an outpouring of affection, monetary, as well as gifts; reassuring Lisa, she was deeply missed and in their hearts.

Lisa was a beloved mother, daughter, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She was and always will be loved and adored by many. She was self-motivated, confident, and a realist. She didn't meet a stranger, knew so many people, from childhood to adulthood she could ID a person from 20, 30, 40 years ago, and called you by your full government name. She could put a face with a name in a heartbeat, her mind was SHARP. Lisa would give a person a nickname and it stuck with them for life. She was the baby of her siblings, but thought she was the eldest, so Bossy. She was the life of a party. She loved to cook, eat, read novels, and have gatherings with family and friends; but not to mention Lisa loved to burn those phone lines up, she most definitely had to have unlimited data. (LOL) Lisa was simply a Jewel, priceless, full of life and style. She has engraved her legacy on the hearts and minds of many. (look around) She was truly LOVED. Lisa will be forever missed but not forgotten; as she would so affectionately say every morning on Facebook... "Good Morning LoveBugs".
