Rodney was the definition of a Family Man! With his welcoming smile and contagious laugh, Rodney always encouraged gatherings with friends and family. Unofficially coined "Avon's finest Grill Master", there was always plenty of delicious eats to go around! He was considered an extreme sports fanatic for the Indianapolis Colts and New York Mets, but he was also known to throw an occasional cheer towards the Cubs whenever Paulette was watching.

He was a movie and music buff with an affectionate nickname of "Fudgy Love". Probably the most memorable and exciting times were all the places traveled, and experiences shared with Paulette in Las Vegas, Hong Kong, Italy, London, Ireland, and countless other locations around the world!

Rodney Fuller was a beloved husband, father, Pops, son, brother, and friend. He passed peacefully in the presence of his mother and wife at St. Vincent's Hospital on Tuesday, September 7th.

Rodney is survived by his loving wife, Paulette Fuller, daughter, Deanna Fuller, parents, James and Annie Fuller, brother, Michael (wife Mary) Fuller, uncle, James Howard, stepchildren, Jillian (husband Jarrod) Kaufman, Nick (wife Victoria) Vincent, Jennifer Vincent, grandchildren, Quinn Kaufman (7), Lou Vincent (5), and Copelin Kaufman (5).
